Celebrating Art for Senior Engagement

Hello!

Thank you for supporting Celebrating Art for Senior Engagement (CASEfest) this year and creative aging through the arts! My name is Sarah Harford and I am the Project Manager for CASEfest. I will be sending newsletters this month highlighting upcoming events from our calendar during our festival (April 19-29).

This newsletter will include a link to our online calendar, some highlighted events that kick-off CASEfest, a list of our Partners and some informative videos of Maturity and Its Muse creator, Lynn Hamilton, at the Contemporary Art Museum in St. Louis!

I am a sculpture installation artist working and living in St. Louis. I started helping Lynn with CASEfest in 2017 and was inspired by all of the locations & communities participating in the festival. I am the program coordinator for Laumeier Sculpture Park's education department where I bring in local artists to teach various classes & workshops for all ages. When Lynn asked me to return this year, I knew I would get a different experience after working at the Park for a year. I wholeheartedly support the goals and mission of Maturity and Its Muse and cannot wait to see what this year's festival brings!

Thank you for supporting CASEfest and I hope to see you this year!

Sarah
