Create Throw + Grow Sculptures at Laumeier Sculpture Park. Create art in the great outdoors! Visit Laumeier SculpturePark to participate in an activity led by Laumeier's docents while learning about the sculptures that are in view. We will be creating Throw & Grow sculptures, which are clay balls filled with native flower seeds in them. Once the seed ball is created, participants will paint & sculpt the clay into a self-portrait. Once dry, your sprouting self-portrait can be thrown in our native plant area or brought home to be thrown in your own backyard. Watch your self-portrait grow everyday into a beautiful flower.

Check in at the Visitor's Service Desk in the Aronson Fine Arts Center prior to the event.
